

incredulity

the state of being unwilling or unable to believe something

whimpered

to cry with broke and plaintive sounds

Reading!

So where was I said I had stolen many things but none of it was true. Then things got to far he spent his day at school trying to figure out how to steal the...

CROWN JEWELS

my nosey neighbour Mr Parker caught me and Ben in the hospital.

To make things worse the police told us that we were braking the law and he gave us a ride to London I told PC Fudge Clingfilm Appreciation Society once he dropped us of we crossed the river and half of are hiest had gone until we got caught by the Queen herself I told her what had happened she felt sorry and let us go. When me and Ben were home many policemen surrounded us Mr Parker had told on us they searched us. Mr Parker new we had or were going to steal the crown jewels luckily PC Fudge was there to tell everyone about the meating with the Clingfilm and Bubble Wrap Appreciation Society.

exaggerate

Repesent something being large, better or worse.

relevent

Closely connected or appropriate to what is being done or said.