

Hello Year 3,

Are you feeling relaxed after a spot of nice weather and a half term break? I'm excited to hear what you have been up to and would love to comment back with what I've done too! It is time now though to turn our brain boxes back on and start up where we left off. A new term brings new learning so keep checking up on your Virtual Learning, Purple Mash, TTRS and Class Dojo for support and guidance. If you like a topic or are interested in something we have started then do your own research; the internet and non-fiction books are FULL of juicy facts to magpie and share.

Have a superb week and happy first of the month!

From Miss White

Monday

We are starting a new topic, looking at Gods and Mortal from Greek mythology. Our first God is the almighty ruler, Zeus, who is the protagonist in many Greek folklores and the father of Miss White's favourite Greek hero, Hercules!

Read about the other Gods and Goddesses and click through to see more about their story, objects related to them and festivals in their honour.

Choose which of the Gods or Goddesses you would like to be ready for tomorrow's task.

Tuesday

Your job today and tomorrow is to convince me why I should become the Greek God of your choice. Watch this video to understand more about what persuasion needs and start to plan out your ideas around why your favourite is the ULTIMATE GOD!

Wednesday

Finalise your argument by following this writing format to help justify your ideas (Carry this into Thursday if you need to)

Paragraph 1 – Who have you chosen? Background information and facts needed!

Paragraph 2 – What are their strengths? What makes them your winner?

Paragraph 3 – Why should I agree with you that your choice is the best choice?

Thursday

Watch the video, 'Bridge'.

Pause the video at the following times and make a prediction about what will happen next.

Friday

Read the story of Zeus and Pandora. What do you think the message is within this story about resistance and following instructions?

Science

Light is our new topic this term and will be the first time we look in detail at sources, uses and purposes.

Watch the following Kids Academy video to inform your new learning and make a list of ANY light source in your house. Think outside the box, what smaller household objects might emit some form of light?

Music

Before virtual schooling, we were looking at how music can tell a story or pass on a message. Please watch this fabulous video on Ancient Greece and ask a parent if they recognise what it is a parody of. Maybe they could point you in the right direction of watching some of the songs and dances from the movie?

Gods and Mortals – History and Art

Historian hats on! Using the google search bar, please research 'Greek Gods lightning kids' to reveal the God who we are being introduced to this week. NatGeo kids is also a good place to explore.

Your task is to create a model, picture or sculpture of him or his signature item 😊

Have a look at Kawaii drawing styles if you would like to draw him this way.

Urban Pioneers –Geography

Compare this North Eastern landmark with the buildings you would expect to see in Ancient Greece. What similarities and inspiration do you think were drawn from the architecture in order to create Penshaw Monument?

PE

Did you try out some Minion Zumba or take your horse to the Old Town Road, Zumba style last week? Try the extra one and ask an adult to film it.

Try something new...

When we begin to regain a little bit of normality, I am sure that we will all have dreams to jet off to some wonderful places. During lockdown, I have been brushing up on my languages as it's my favourite subject to teach. On our Class Dojo page, I will be posting videos with some vocab for you to learn at home so that once you decide what jobs you would like to pursue, you could be prepared to chase it in any country around the world!

Our fourth set of videos will be Thai, French, German and Spanish colours!
